Proceeds Will Aid Research

A showing of the latest in fall fashions from Levy's Department Store will be the highlight of the Torrance Chapter, City of Hope benefit luncheon Monday at the home of Mrs. Edward Schwartz, 3244 El Dorado Ave.

Members modeling at the event will be Mmes. Bert Lynn, Walter West, and William Boswell.

Entire proceeds from the luncheon will further medical research at City of Hope, according to Vera Howe, newly-elected president of the group.

In charge of arrangements are Mmes. Sol Young, Walter West, and Herman Weston.

Reservations may be obtained by contacting any member of the chapter.

Republicans to Hear GOP State Leader

Mrs. R. G. Kenyon, president of the California Federation of Republican Women, will address the club's South Bay Chapter July 14 at a luncheon meeting at the Fish Shanty, 4020 Pacific Coast Hwy.

A hat show featuring millinery by Vieno Studios of Hermosa Beach will be a highlight of the luncheon.

Mrs. Kenyon is a delegate to the 1968 Republican Party Convention.

In addition to heading the State Federation of Republican Women, she is president of the San Marino Women's Republican Club, vice chairman-membership on the National Board of the organization, and a member of the executive committee of the Republican State Central Committee.

Alla Reeder, vice chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, Southern Division, also will be an honored guest at the meeting.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling Bertha Walters, FR 2-2383, or Miss Maude Smith, FR 2-2357.

Two Here Named Hostesses to Delegates at Convention

Mrs. John Simpson, 4904 Paseo de las Tortugas, and Miss Jeannene King, 21617 S. Vicky St. are among the 270 Golden Girls selected by Democratic clubs to act as hostesses to the delegates to the Democratic National Convention, starting Monday at the Los Angeles Sports Arena.

Duties of the hostesses will include an airport welcoming committee, accompanying the delegates to and from the convention, on special buses, arrangements for trips to points of interest, and serving as pages on the convention floor.

Among the events planned for the delegates at which the Golden Girls will preside are a reception at the Beverly Hilton Hotel Sunday, a trip to the NBC studios, and a viewing of fashions by top California designers Tuesday at the Beverly Hilton.

The hostesses also will accompany delegates on two trips to Hollywood Park; on Saturday to view the running of the Hollywood Derby, and July 15, for a special race in honor of the convention.

Golden Girls may be identified by their white shirt-waist dresses and straw hats accented with red or blue streamers. Several hostesses will be selected from the group to open the convention on TV Monday evening.

Mrs. Simpson was chosen by the Hollywood Riviera Democratic Club. Miss King is membership chairman of the Torrance Democrats Inc.

Family Picnic Slated by Mothers of Twins

The South Bay Mothers of Twins Club will hold its annual family picnic Sunday in El Retiro Park, Hollywood Riviera.

A twin parade, games and contests, a picnic lunch, and free ice cream for the youngsters are among the events being planned.

A coffee hour in the rotunda at 11 a.m. will keynote the festivities, followed by lunch with ice cream and cookies, courtesy of Targart Appliances.

At 1 p.m., twins will parade before judges. Mayor

Albert Isen, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. John Barton and Dr. H. Keith Packard.

The twins will compete in six categories. Identical and non-identical twins will compete in separate groups.

Joy Smith is in charge of the event. Planning committee members are Sheila Prevvo, Peggy Everett, Yolanda Vuosos, Glenda Adams, and Bobbe Douglass.

In charge of games are Diana Jones and Ella Rose Alexander. Kay Husereau and Barbara Milton are planning refreshments.

Convention Trip Set by Scouts

Members of Girl Scout Troop 252 will view history in the making when they attend the Democratic convention July 15 at the Los Angeles Sports Arena.

The scouts also plan to hold a day camp in El Nido Park, Tuesday through Saturday.

Past activities of the group have included a trip to Pacific Ocean Park and participation in the Memorial Day services at the Moose Hall. The troop is sponsored by the Torrance Women of the Moose.
